

Barack Obama
 → He said that we hadn't come to this world to fear the future → He said that we needed to change the game → He said that our destiny was not written for us,
 but for us

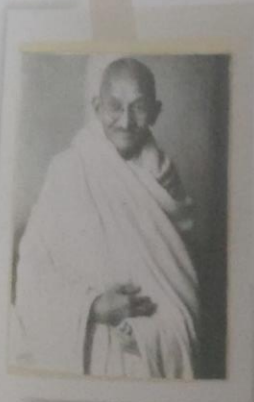

Albert Einstein
 → He said to strive not to be a success, but rather to be of value → He said a person who had never made a mistake had never tried anything new

Marilyn Monroe → She said that she didn't mind making jokes but she didn't want to look like one

Aristotle
 → He said only truth
 is the reality → He said that the Natives never did anything without reason

Mahatma Gandhi
 → He said that there were people in the world so hungry, that God couldn't appear to them except in the form of bread → He said that we should be the change we wanted to see in the world

Reported speech questions

1. Which is a reporting verb?

- a tell
- b go
- c be

2. He said that it was cold outside. Which word is optional?

- a said
- b that
- c was

3. He said that it was cold outside. Which word is optional?

- a a week ago
- b next week
- c the week before

4. "Where is it?" said Mary. She

- a said where it is
- b asked where it was
- c asked if it was there

5. Which of these is usually required with reported YES/NO questions?

- a if
- b do
- c why

6. Ram asked me where I worked. His original words were

- a "Do you work there?"
- b "Where do I work?"
- c "Where do you work?"

7. "Don't yell!" is a

- a direct request
- b direct order
- c reported order

8. "Please wipe your feet." I asked them to wipe

- a your feet nicely
- b their feet nicely
- c their feet

9. She always asks me not to burn the cookies. She always says

- a "Not to burn the cookies!"
- b "Please don't burn the cookies."
- c "Do not burn the cookies."

10. Which structure is not used for reported orders?

- a order somebody to
- b tell somebody to
- c ask somebody to