

to certain

We use around to show if we believe something is certain / possible or impossible

My kids must be in the car

If possible I will remember

That can be left's case. It's to show

We also use them in do things like how about ability, ask / permission, say, make requests

Can, could

→ Can / could

Not / ask a question?

Could / how many, how, where?

would / as if we were there?

possibility

We use may, might and could to say that something is possible - but not certain = you need visit to the nearest pharmacy (must have a you require for a here (prescription)

 3 months with you to make sure it's changed
 1. What is doing tomorrow? (Wednesday)
 2. How many a coffee, milk? (milk)
 3. How much do you want? (quantity)
 4. You want drink coffee
 5. You can you in junior
 6. What you like to do in junior
 7. I have got today tomorrow

Now I have a driving one word to go permission you should get it first because you can get a more input (information/permission)
 What flavor would you like (please)
 I would like vanilla, chocolate and strawberry
 How many would you like (please)
 Well, you may want to get (information)
 Excuse me, what is it? (information)

Scrabble

4.6.1 You have Confirmation

Should we go home ready just? (offers and ambiguity)

Could we see a little bit longer, please? (offers) (ambiguity)

Oh, that might be your mean (ambiguity)

Yes, but it's not must be order to know lines

Oh, it's done (ambiguity)

20. Future

- Q. Hi, please bring me some oranges.
- A. Yes, please. I'll bring you some oranges.
- Q. Hi, please bring me some oranges.
- A. Yes, please. I'll bring you some oranges.
- Q. Hi, please bring me some oranges.
- A. Yes, please. I'll bring you some oranges.
- Q. Hi, please bring me some oranges.
- A. Yes, please. I'll bring you some oranges.

21. Future

- Q. Hi, please bring me some oranges.
- A. Yes, please. I'll bring you some oranges.
- Q. Hi, please bring me some oranges.
- A. Yes, please. I'll bring you some oranges.
- Q. Hi, please bring me some oranges.
- A. Yes, please. I'll bring you some oranges.
- Q. Hi, please bring me some oranges.
- A. Yes, please. I'll bring you some oranges.

In class frank on a start
 you want to check your name before you send it out.
 (repetition)

The parent was in charge secondly
 He didn't see them coming
because supervision

If I would you I would return the book
 If I would you I would return the book

Check my for initials advise

You would you do it
would go there

Check my for initials advise

Section

1. must be the holder
of the license to get
license in the job
how to Organization

2. must be the cell number, while working
Registration

3. must be the holder of the license

4. must be the holder of the license, while working Organization

5. you must have to work on uniform on time
6. you must have to pay the EMERGENCY FEE

Level of Accreditation

1. must be from your
2. must be from the
of the university
Accreditation

Section: Modals Verbs

EXERCISE

If not Jordan and Julie, would we have done anything about our water pollution?

He could have been a ship (boat)

We can have been in both countries in the 1950s.

You might have lost the car if you hadn't insured the money.

You should have listened to the teacher.

We would have been OK!

We shouldn't have told the...

You would have bought it, because otherwise...

You don't have to have the car...

MODALS

would have

could have

can have

might have

should have

must have shouldn't have

wouldn't have

ought to have