

My wife and I have traveled as much as possible since we retired. We've visited cousins in Australia, and we've been to New Zealand twice. We've also went on Safari in Africa, we've been to Europe a lot. Gina and I has spent time in Paris, in Madrid, and several cities in Italy. We haven't to Eastern Europe yet, though we hope to visit Prague and Budapest next year.

My sister Betty was born in the United States and she has never traveled outside the country - except once when she was very young. But she has been to a lot of places in the U.S. She has visited most of the National Parks, The Grand Canyon, Yellowstone, Yosemite and so on. She has been to all of the big cities, too. In fact she has lived in four different cities in the U.S.: New York, Boston, Los Angeles and San Francisco. I think she has seen more of her own country than most people.
