Two people from my class always make fun of me because I always wear a cycle helmet when I'm cycling to school. The roads are quite busy so I think it's safer to always wear a helmet. I want to be safe, but they say it looks stupid. Normally I don't care what they say, but sometimes it hurts when they are mean.

Rachel, 14

c

I have a group of five really good friends. But my friend Diana is really annoying. She always criticises one of us – what we wear, what we say, what we're having for lunch – everything. Sometimes I talk to her about it, and she always apologises, but then she starts doing it again.

Aleja, 15

a

I usually hang around with my friends Max and Larry at break – we all love basketball. But now they smoke. They have a group of new friends who go to get cigarettes at break and smoke them behind the gym. We hardly ever play basketball now, and I feel like I'm losing my friends. Maybe I should start smoking too?

Jack, 14

Rachel 14:

Das personas de mi clase siempre se burlan de mi porque siempre uso casco de ciclismo cuando voy a la escuela en bicicleta. Las carreteras están bastante transitadas así que creo que es más seguro llevar casco siempre. Quiero estar a salvo, pero dicen que es una estupidez. Normalmente no me importa lo que digan, pero a veces duele cuando son malos.

Jack 14:

Normalmente salgo con mis amigos Max y Larry en el recreo; a todos nos encanta el baloncesto. Pero ahora fuman. Tienen un grupo de nuevos amigos que van a buscar cigarrillos en el recreo y se los fuman detrás del gimnasio. Casi nunca jugamos baloncesto ahora y siento que me estoy perdiendo a mis amigos. ¡Quitar! debería empezar a fumar también!

Alec 15:

Tengo un grupo de amigos realmente buenos, pero mi amiga Diana es realmente molesta. Siempre critica a uno de nosotros; lo que que vestimos, lo que decimos, lo que almorzamos, etc. A veces le hablo de eso y ella siempre disculpa, pero luego continúa haciéndolo de nuevo.
