

THE IMPERATIVES

We can use imperatives to:

GIVE ORDERS

- Come here at once!
- Take that gum out of your mouth!

GIVE INSTRUCTIONS

- Take one pill every 12 hours.
- Open your books on page 33.

ON SIGNS

- Push
- Pull
- Give way
- Stay on your right

GIVE WARNINGS

- Don't sit on the bench! It's wet paint.
- Don't smoke! It's bad for your health.

MAKE AN INVITATION

- Have some tea. It's still hot.
- Come in and sit down. We are having tea.

GIVE ADVICE

- Go home and get some sleep. You look exhausted.
- Tell me about your trip to Ireland.

1 Complete the following instructions with these verbs: go, take, turn, cross.

Dialogue A

- Excuse me. How can I get to the bank?

- Go straight on, turn the second turning on the left, then cross at the pedestrian crossing, take past the post office and the bank is just next to it.

Dialogue B

- Good morning, can you tell me how I can go to the bus station?

- Take up this road, turn right at the corner, go along to the end of the street and you'll find it there.

Make the following instructions negative. See the example.

- a) Write a letter
- b) Sit down
- c) Clean the room
- d) Make dinner
- e) Call your mother
- f) Put on your shoes

Don't write a letter
Don't sit down
Don't clean the room
Don't make dinner
Don't call your mother
Don't put on your shoes

Make the following instructions affirmative. See the example.

- a) Don't send the parcel
- b) Don't make your bed
- c) Don't use the computer
- d) Don't close the window
- e) Don't take those books away
- f) Don't open the fridge

Send the parcel
Make your bed
Use the computer
Close the window
Take those books away
Open the fridge

Match the two columns to make instructions:

- a) Feed
- b) Wash
- c) Don't
- d) Do
- e) Let's
- f) Tidy
- g) Don't
- h) Let's

- h) have a drink
- c) put on your jacket, it's hot
- f) your bedroom
- e) go to class; it's eight o'clock.
- b) the dishes
- d) your homework
- a) the bird
- g) leave the door open

Scribe

Activity page 213:
Feed the bird

(Don't leave the door open)
wash the dishes

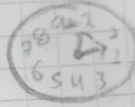

Don't put on your jacket, it's hot

Bye tomorrow

Let's go to class; it's eight o'clock.

Don't leave the open door open.

Let's have a drink

