

Actively IDIOMATIC

- Piece of cake: Something is really easy.
- To run late to run behind: Be late for something.
- To get hang of: Start getting it.
- All set: When we're ready or prepared for something.
- To sound like a broken record: To repeat the same information and it isn't necessary.
- To pitch in: To start doing something as a group especially something that is help.
- To blow off some steam: To do or say something to help you get rid of some energy.
- IT'S not rocket science: To express something isn't difficult and should be easy to understand.

• To table something: to postpone a discussion till a later time.

• To jump on the bandwagon: to start supporting something or doing something because it's trendy.

• To sit in the nosebleed section: to sit in seats that are in high up in a stadium.

• To fall through the cracks: to overlook something.