

Q you were handsome / you weren't handsome / were handsome?

Q it was beautiful / it wasn't handsome was it beautiful

Q she was intelligent / she wasn't intelligent / was she intelligent?

Q he was classy / he wasn't classy / was he classy?

Q the dog was / classy / the dog / was not classy / was the dog classy?

Q my father / was tall / my father / was not tall / was my father?

Date 28th 2021 Tuesday

Verb to be in past

Verb to be: ser - estar

The verb to be is the most important in English language.

↓ The verb to be indicate where someone or something is.

→ The verb to be indicates how - an example - I was happy

• She was at the restaurant affirmative statements:

Personal pronouns - verb to be in form - complement

I was happy

She was happy

or activity

1. complete the state with the correct form of the verb to be

- a I was hungry
- b they were doctors
- c you were handsome
- d it was a beautiful day
- e she was intelligent
- f he was classy
- g The dog was crazy
- h My father was tall
- i My mother was thin
- j We were friends

Date ~~21~~ April, 2021 Thursday

Affirmative

I was happy / we were happy

Negative I wasn't happy We weren't happy question: Was I happy Were we happy affirmative: Peter was brave

Negative: Peter was not brave question: Was Peter brave?

affirmative they were smart

Negative they were not smart question were they smart

activity:

activity

change the sentences

a. They were doctors / They weren't doctors / Was hungry

b. They were doctors / They weren't doctors

Were they doctors?

I was seven years ~~my best old~~

You were my best friend

The grasshopper was jumping

The women was talking

Your bikini were verbos to be activity

1 complete the sentences using the correct verb to be in past form a Peter was hungry

b Jane and Paula were boyfriends

c The cat was cute

d The dogs were funious

e I was tall

f Mary was smart

g Carlos was young h Joan and Lisa were intelligent

i Sophie was thin

j We were students