

adventures between friends

A long time ago in a forest three animals, went in search of food one was the bird, the elephant, an a rabbit, each looking for their food in different parts of the forest the bird looked in the air while the elephant and rabbit were looking in the land have after a while of looking they found food for the three a piece of meat that they shared, they left happy to have eaten a good piece of meat, have been found a new friend the tiger that almost eats the rabbit, but fortunately the elephant came to help him, long time being friends the elephant separated from them because he had found his family, each one took his way and never.

Dayan Lizeth Fernandez Reyes

Death Valley

A short time ago April was traveling with her friends, her next destination was the Valley of Death in Chile, the night came and they were preparing the camp to go to sleep, they noticed that in the sky there were a series of strange lights that were approaching and more close. and more to them to the point that he heard strange things in that place; so they took their things and fled quickly from that place and were never seen again.

"Maria Bejarano"

My dream

we were there in the spelling contest in English, I along with my English teacher prepared and with an immense intrigue since we did

The blind crossing

Once while I was walking through the forest I met a blind man who was walking. I kept going until I found a river, in my attempt to pass it I fell and hit my legs against a rock, leaving them so hurt that I could not walk. A few minutes later the blind man arrived, I asked him to call for help but he told me that there was no one, I convinced him to help me cross since I could not reach the other side alone. The blind man replied that he could pass but in the absence of his vision he could slip.

Given this, I came up with the idea that the blind man would hold me, while I guided him through the crossing. We both proceeded to carefully cross the river, succeeding and getting to the