I thought I knew him. I thought I had seen is earlier before he had was. (I had) only twice in his life before the accident Benny no longer had her car, she had had sell it. I saw Annika last week, she had had changed a lot Terry wasn't at home. He had gone out.

I tried to find the phone but he wasn't around. Then I found out he had died. He didn't need to borrow the car because he had had his bike repaired - Jenny had got / gotten home when the phone rang. The new restaurant wasn't open any longer - it had closed down.
He fed the cat because no one had fed it for days.

I work: I had worked he paint: he had painted we listen: we had listened you speak: you had spoken they find: they had found we ate cherries from the tree that my grandfather had planted many years before when we arrived, the snow had already started we went to a place where I had never been before The teacher wanted to know whether we had read the book.
