My sister Betty was born in the United States, and she has never traveled outside the country - except once when she was very young. But she has been to a lot of places in the U.S. she has visited most of the National Parks: the Grand Canyon, Yellowstone, Yosemite, and so on. She has been to all of the big cities in the U.S.: New York, Boston, Los Angeles, and San Francisco. I think she has seen more of her own country than most people.

My wife and I have traveled as much as possible since we retired. We've visited cousins in Australia, and we have been to New Zealand twice. We've also gone on Safari in Africa. We have been to Europe a lot. G. and I have spent time in Paris, in Madrid, and several cities in Italy. We haven't been to Eastern Europe yet, though. We hope to visit Prague
