

The image shows a digital tangram puzzle interface. The main area is a green square with a grid pattern. In the center, a black shape is formed by several tangram pieces. A black box with the word "Example" is positioned above the shape. On the right side, there is a vertical toolbar with the text "DIGIPUZZLE.NET" and icons for a home button, a search button, a play button, and a settings gear. At the bottom of the interface, the text "Jugando a: Tangram Online" is visible, along with standard browser navigation icons.
