READING COMPREHENSION

1 Read the text and fill in the gaps with the correct option.

Coffee is popular around the world. (0) over the past centuries, few subjects have been as carefully studied as coffee. Its (1) most important component is caffeine and it has lots of benefits. Coffee has been well-known (2) since the beginning of the 14th century, (3) when Sufi Yemenis started using coffee to stay alert during special activities. It became a popular medicine (4) among Europeans in the 1600s. Caffeine was first (5) described in the 1800s by Ferdinand Runge, a doctor that found out some effects that coffee has on people. Some people say (6) drinking coffee isn't good, but doctors say you (7) mustn't believe this. Thanks to caffeine you don't get hungry. Coffee can also reduce headaches and blood problems. (8) because many people believe coffee is bad, studies show it is good for your heart.

JAMES SALTER'S DAYS IN FILM

James Salter was a pilot in the United States Air Force. He abandoned the military profession in 1957 after the publication of his first novel, The Hunters. He is best known as a novelist, but during the sixties and seventies, he worked in film making. Salter made documentaries, wrote texts for films, and even was the director of a film called Three, starring Charlotte Rampling and Sam Waterston. In Passionate Falsehoods, which was adapted from Salter's book Burning the Days, published in The New Yorker in 1997, Salter tells the story of his life in film. Salter's time in the film world is both good and bad. In Rome, he met directors and stars. In New York, he explored the city with Robert Redford
