

some form of the same examples with more specific time expressions. Note how we have to use the past simple in these sentences.

Using the present perfect in this way is often used to talk about one's experiences of life. Have you ever... is a common expression.

Q Have you ever ridden a horse?
A Yes, I have. I rode a horse when I was 10 years old.
Q Have you ever eaten frog's legs?
A Yes, I have. I had them in Paris in 1998.

Note how, in the second dialogue, the person responding uses the past simple to say when he went to New York.
