

PRESENT SIMPLE

D Underline the verbs in the following sentences.

- 1. She has an important math test on Friday.
- 2. What things do you like to do to relax?
- 3. She feels annoyed because her friend Paulina tells her to date her brother.
- 4. She is afraid because the math test is only one day away.
- 5. Paulina and Katie are friends again after Paulina tells Katie that she is sorry.
- 6. How does Katie feel today?

Underline the correct option below to complete the rule.

We use the present simple tense to talk about habits and routines / something we are doing now.

In pairs, answer the following questions.

1) How do we form questions and negative statements in the present simple?

first the subject then the question and finally the response with contraction.

2) What happens to the verb in affirmative statements in the third person singular (he / she / it)?

the present simple affirmative is formed with the verb without 'to' in the 3rd person singular.

4 Use the correct verbal form in each case. Use the words from the word bank (you may use a verb more than once).

Be - Do - Play - Sleep - Sound - Know - Seem - Listen - Feel

Matt: Hey Finn, how Be you today?

Sara: I do great! Thank you. Hey, play you sleep José?

Matt: Yes! He sound friendly. Know you his friend?

Sara: Yes! We seem the same sport and listen to the same music.

Matt: Awesome! Hey, your voice feel a bit tired.

Sara: Yeah, I am a bit tired. I be like I don't do enough at night.

Matt: Well, sleeping play very important, Matt.

Sara: Yeah, I think you're right. I will start sleeping better!

Matt: Okay, buddy. Goodbye!

210

Reading task

Speak up!

Adults like to say that the opinions of kids and teenagers don't matter that much. Well, they're wrong! Your opinion is very important and you have the right to say it. If you feel happy, sad or angry, say it! But remember that it is always important to respect the ideas of others.

It is crucial to say what you think and what you feel, because it will make you a unique person, with your own opinions about things. Don't let anybody make you think that your voice can't be heard or listened to.

Take the time to listen to your friends too. The best way of learning about somebody is to listen to what they have to say.

Remember: Your best weapon is your voice. Use it!

1 In pairs, look at the picture and read the text. Answer the following questions.

1 What does she have in her hand? What is it for?

she has a microphone

2 What does "your best weapon is your voice" mean?

that the best thing is to give your opinion.

3 Why is it important for you to give your opinion?

because I want everyone to listen to me

4 Say if these sentences are T (true) or F (false).

- a Adults don't respect the opinion of kids, but respect the opinion of teenagers. False
- b Giving your opinion is important, but you also have to respect different opinions. True
- c Listening to what other people have to say is important. It will help you to know that person better. True
- d It is better if you give your opinion only when you are happy. False
- e You have a right to give your opinion. True

5 In pairs, answer the following questions.

a Do you usually give your opinion?

my opinion is important to me and my friends.