

Based on the information you just read, describe how the movements of an elephant seal are different on land than underwater.

They costy alive 1,000 to 2000 feet to hunt or squid to 2000 they are able to har underwater 20 minutes or more

Why do male elephant seals reach land before females during the breeding season?

Males comes shave before females to fight for dominance

How does an elephant seal get its food? What foods are part of the diet of an elephant seal?

The main sources of food are fish and squid, prey is captured both near the surface and very deep underwater.

Are elephant seals going extinct today? Why or why not?

Today there are somewhere a belin on 120,000-150,000 elephants seal. A number ticky chiss.